School

- Double Major: Accounting and Economics
- Double Minor: MIS and Finance
- Accounting: I have always loved numbers and like the preciseness of it
- Economics: I loved Microeconomics and one class led to another
- MIS: Felt it was important to know in the world we live in today
- Finance: Why not? Pairs with Econ

Career goals

- End goal: CFO/Controller type position
- Next few years: MAcc, CPA
- Work for Eide Bailly (Accounting)

Why Fin 5350?

It is a dual MIS + Finance credit that I need for graduation

I also have quite a bit of experience in Python/Data/Modeling so it seems interesting

Profound influential idea

- Never sell yourself short

So often we have opportunities in front of us. Pushing ourselves out of our comfort zone makes the world a better place. It helps people develop talents and do things they never knew were possible.

Recent book: The happiness advantage

This book is so good! It really looks at where happiness comes from and how we can be happier on an individual basis.
